The Data Protection Act now states that individual credit references will require the full name and date of birth, as well as the address and postcode, to ensure the reference is for the correct person. Therefore, if the application is for an individual or a partnership, we will require the full names, dates of birth, and addresses for all applicants. In addition, two copies of proof of address will be required to proceed with the account application process. Should you wish to discuss this matter, please direct enquiries to the Credit Control Department.
